TERPS WIN... AGAIN!!!

Maryland successfully defended its title, winning the 2006 NCAA Championship after also capturing the 2005 crown. The Terps won both titles with a 1-0 decision, defeating Wake Forest on its home field in 2006 and Duke in 2005 in Louisville, Ky.

1 :: Maryland won the 2005 NCAA Championship, its first title in six years. Five Terrapins are named to the NCAA All-Tournament team, including Emily Beach, Jackie Ciconte, Tiffany Marsh, Lauren Powley and Paula Infante.

2 :: The Terps followed up its 2005 championship by capturing the 2006 crown, breaking a trend of winning the title every six years. Five players are named to the all-tournament squad, including Paula Infante, who is selected for the fourth time, Christina Restivo, Susie Rowe, Emily Trycinski and Janneke van Leeuwen.

3 :: Maryland is invited to participate in a historic event when more than 20 teams visit the White House for "Champions Day" to meet President George W. Bush.

ROAD TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

2006 :: Maryland easily disposes of Richmond, 4-0, in the first round, then triumphs in a nail biter in the rain against Penn State, 1-0, in College Park to advance to its fourth-straight NCAA semifinals.

It is not an easy road to the finals as Connecticut plays spoiler. The match is decided in penalty strokes, where goalkeeper Christina Restivo comes off the bench to make two saves in the stroke-off to put Maryland in the championship game.

In the title tilt, the Terps have to overcome a raucous home crowd as they take on top-seeded Wake Forest on its home field. Emily Trycinski scores the game's only goal just before the end of the first half. The goal would stand and Maryland is crowned champs.

THANK YOU FANS!

The two-time national champions are never short on fan support at home and on the road, traveling all over the country to watch the team play. Maryland ranked second in the nation in average home attendance in 2006. "Right here! Right now!"

4 :: Four-time All-American Paula Infante high-fives fans after winning the 2006 NCAA title.

5 :: Maryland's biggest supporters are alumni, family and friends, who regularly attend home and away matches, and especially national championship games.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

6 :: The national champion Terps celebrate for the television cameras. The title game was nationally televised on CSTV.

PLAYING FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

Maryland has won five NCAA Championships, the second-most of any school in the country, winning back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006. Making 20 postseason appearances, 19 in the NCAA Tournament, the Terps have been in contention for the crown numerous times, advancing to the national semifinals 12 times and the title game seven times. Maryland was in the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament four straight years from 2003-06.

1 :: 1987 NCAA Champions • Maryland wins its first NCAA Championship in 1987, defeating North Carolina, 2-1. The game marked head coach Sue Tyler's last at the Terrapin helm.

2 :: Six years later, the Terps capture their second title in 1993, the first under head coach Missy Meharg. They defeated North Carolina, again, 2-1, in penalty strokes.

3 :: It took another six years for Maryland to hoist the national championship trophy, winning the 1999 championship with a 2-1 win over Michigan in Boston, Mass.

4 :: It seemed to be fate. Six years after winning the program's third national crown, Maryland claimed its fourth, shutting out Duke, 1-0, in Louisville, Ky.

5 :: The Terps break its six-year "jinx," successfully defending their national title and capturing the program's fifth overall and fourth under head coach Missy Meharg. Maryland defeated Wake Forest on its home field, 1-0.

In addition, Maryland has been crowned ACC Champions six times, all coming under Meharg. The Terps won four in a row from 1998-2001. Its last title was won on Maryland's home field in 2005.

THE WHITE HOUSE

The 1987 team holds the distinction of being the first field hockey national champions to be honored at the White House, visiting President Ronald Reagan. Maryland went on to meet Presidents Bill Clinton and George W. Bush.

THE COACHES

6 :: Legendary coach Sue Tyler mentored the Terps from 1974-1987, winning over 150 games and capturing Maryland's first national championship in 1987. She is the only DI-A coach to win national titles in two sports (women's lacrosse and field hockey)

7 :: Hired as an assistant coach in 1985 by Tyler, Missy Meharg was promoted to head coach in 1988. She became Maryland's all-time winningest coach in 1998 and has logged over 300 victories in her 19-year tenure. She has led the Terps to four NCAA titles and all six ACC crowns.

8 :: Meharg's first team in 1988 marked the beginning of a new era and a continued tradition of excellence.

OFF THE FIELD

HONDA AWARD

The Honda Award is presented to the nation's most outstanding field hockey player. Two Terrapins have earned the sports' highest honor in the history of the program.

1 :: Autumn Welsh was Maryland field hockey's first recipient of the prestigious honor in 2002.

2 :: The most decorated player in Maryland field hockey history Paula Infante became the second Honda Award winner in the program's history in 2005, then earned the honor again in 2006. In 2006, she went on to become one of the top-five finalists for the coveted Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the NCAA's Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

In the Terrapins 33-year history, 42 players have earned 78 All-American citations, including 70 under 20-year head coach Missy Meharg. Of the 42 Terps, five were selected All-Americans each of their four years:

2 :: Paula Infante - the only Terrapin to be named first team All-American all four years from 2003-05; 3 :: Lauren Powley (2002-05); 4 :: Carla Tagliente (1997-2000); 5 :: Kim Turner (1985-1988).

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

6 :: Missy Meharg has been selected the National Coach of the Year an unprecedented six times (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001, 2005, 2006).

OFF THE FIELD

7 :: Legendary Maryland men's basketball coach Gary Williams participated in a ceremonial pass-back prior to the start of a regular-season game.

8 :: Missy Meharg and the newly-elected Governor of Maryland Martin O'Malley. The national champions are the first team under Governor O'Malley's tenure invited to the Governor's House.

9 :: Numerous players return to College Park every year to play in the Terps' annual Alumni Game, which is played at the state-of-the-art Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

10 :: Paula Infante, Megan Fox and Christina Restivo are pictured with Missy Meharg and their families at the annual President's Cup Brunch. Every year, Terps are recognized for their leadership and academic achievements. In 2006-07, Infante and Restivo were recipients of the M Club's Suzanne Tyler Award and James H. Kehoe Award, respectively. Fox was also an academic award recipient.

11 :: The Terrapins look forward to the team's yearly End-of-the-Year Banquet where the players, coaches, staff, families, friends and alumni gather to recap the season, honor the senior class and enjoy delicious food.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS GO ON ATTACK IN 2007

Coming off national championship runs in 2005 and 2006, Maryland would seem to have a lot of expectations placed on it for a "three-peat," a feat which has occurred just four times in the history of the NCAA Tournament. The Terrapins, however, learned to deal with the expectations and pressured placed on them a year ago. With those lessons learned and add a talented group of newcomers, Maryland will be hungry and formidable, led by a veteran core, focusing on its own goals.

"As always, Maryland hockey thrives to stay in the moment," said six-time NFHCA National Coach of the Year Missy Meharg. "The theme is always to show our new Terps about the culture of Maryland hockey, which is to continue to outwork our teammates and taking the group further by our own example and being our own leaders."

The 2007 team will be different from recent seasons. With an experienced nucleus returning on the forward line and the addition of talented and skilled forwards, Meharg and the coaching staff are looking at displaying a high-powered attack, reminiscent of the days when the Terps had excellent finishers in Jackie Ciconte, a two-time All-American, and Tiffany Marsh, a three-time regional All-American.

"We are really looking to play an exciting style of hockey. It has been a while since we have had a fundamentally-sound scoring unit. We are fortunate to have some season veterans return and also the addition of new players, which allows for us to have a really well-rounded team attack."

That is not to say the defense will be sub par. The backfield will miss the talents of Honda Award winner Paula Infante and All-American Kristina Edmonds, but returning are Susie Rowe and Kathryn Masson, both All-Americans, as well. And while Rowe and Masson will be placed in new roles as the back-line leaders, both are ready to become the backbone of the defense and lead a young group of Terps.

Meharg's incoming crop of newcomers is, collectively, one of the most talented classes in recent memory. They have proven to be successful by winning championships and competing at high levels. How quickly they can integrate their talents with an established core of veterans will be a key component to the success of the Terrapins.

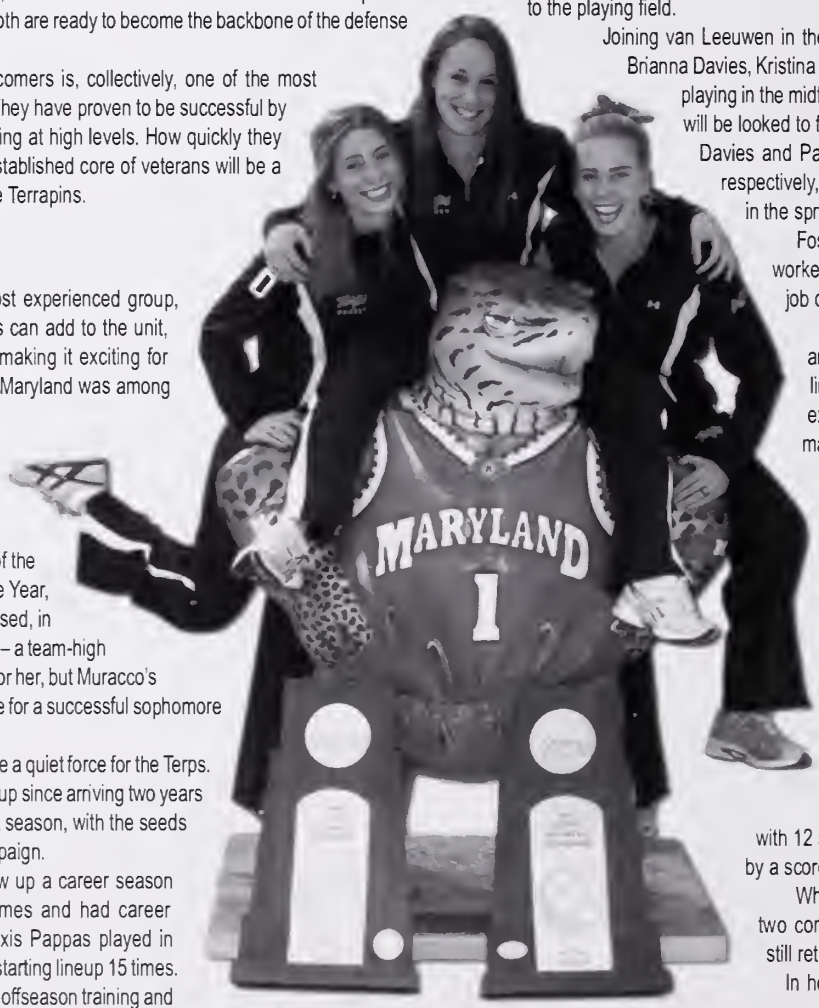
ATTACK

The forward line is Meharg's most experienced group, and what this year's freshmen class can add to the unit, will make for a high-octane attack, making it exciting for fans who remember the days when Maryland was among the high-scoring teams in the nation.

Among the returnees is the Terps' leading scorer from last year, sophomore Nicole Muracco. In just her first season, Muracco took home plenty of hardware at the end of the season, garnering ACC Rookie of the Year, All-American and All-ACC honors based, in large part, to her ability to score goals – a team-high 15. There are plenty of expectations for her, but Muracco's smart and confident play should make for a successful sophomore campaign.

Junior Sarah Scholl continues to be a quiet force for the Terps. Regularly etched into the starting lineup since arriving two years ago, she is ready to have a breakout season, with the seeds planted in a tremendous spring campaign.

Senior Kim Ziegler looks to follow up a career season where she started double-digit games and had career offensive numbers. Sophomore Alexis Pappas played in every game and found herself in the starting lineup 15 times. She has also made big strides during offseason training and could find herself on the midfield unit, where she has also taken to the passing game.



Kathryn Masson, Kim Ziegler and Janneke van Leeuwen take over the reigns as seniors, looking to lead the young Terps to another title.

A junior, Danielle Keeley has made improvements in each of her first two seasons in a Maryland uniform, especially with her versatility. She is another key piece of the forward unit, also seeing time in the midfield.

Without a doubt, incoming freshman Meghan Dean and Katie O'Donnell will make an impact on the attacking unit. Both are very talented and have played in international competitions, earning spots on different U.S. National Teams in their careers. Winning a high school state title as a senior, Dean is an explosive forward and will be an exciting player to watch.

O'Donnell brings tremendous credentials with her. The youngest American athlete to earn an international cap at the age of 16, she has been a member of the U.S. Senior National Team for a few years. She not only likes to score, but is a complete player with the ability to create scoring chances for her teammates, as well.

Not to be overshadowed, also joining the Terps this season is freshman Mary Reilly, who is creative on the front line and will also bring an element of excitement to the attacking unit.

MIDFIELD

The midfield unit is fairly young, with senior co-captain Janneke van Leeuwen bringing the most experience as a three-year starter and a two-time all-region selection. Meharg will look to her to be the leader of this group. A cog on the penalty corner unit and one of the top-10 assist makers in school history, van Leeuwen is recovering from an injury but is expected to make a full return to the playing field.

Joining van Leeuwen in the transition are junior Danielle Keeley and sophomores Brianna Davies, Kristina Foster and Alexis Pappas. Keeley has gained experience playing in the midfield and, as the only other upperclassman in the unit, she will be looked to for her leadership.

Davies and Pappas were impact players on the defense and attack, respectively, last season. Both have been able to adapt new positions in the spring and have really impressed the coaching staff.

Foster played in nearly every game last season and is a hard worker in the midfield. She is very comfortable and does a good job of helping to develop the attack in transition.

Newcomers Meghan Dean and Emily Ellenberger are also talented midfielders who will boost the midfield line. Dean's receiving skills are some of the best and her experience playing with the U.S. Junior National Team will make her an impact player.

Though recovering from a knee injury, Ellenberger was one of the top high school players in the region last year, also leading her team to a state title as a senior.

BACKFIELD

Maryland's calling card the last few years has been its defense, as eight of its last 14 All-Americans have come out of the backfield. With the likes of Paula Infante and Kristina Edmonds anchoring the deep defense, the Terps led the nation in team goals against average in 2006 (0.70) and were second in the nation in 2005 (1.01). Not to mention, the defense tied the school record with 12 shutouts last season and both its title games have come by a score of 1-0.

While the losses of Edmonds and Infante are great, the two combining for five All-American citations, Maryland does still return one All-American from the unit in junior Susie Rowe. In her first two seasons, Rowe has proven to be a big-time player, already garnering major awards, including 2005 ACC Tournament MVP nods and All-ACC recognition last season. However, Rowe will take on a new role as the team's field general, directing the rest of the young Terps in the backfield.

"Without Paula and Kristina, Susie will have the new challenge of stepping up and becoming the field general of the defense. She has tremendous skill and experience, both as a starter for us and playing with the English U-21 team. She will need to draw on that and guide the rest of the defense to become a cohesive unit. I think Susie is up for the challenge."

Also in the back are sophomore Brianna Davies, redshirt freshman Alicia Morawski, junior Ellen Ott and newcomer, freshman Amanda Himmelheber.

Davies was the only freshman to start every game last season. Her speed and tenacious defending helped the Terps post a school-record tying 12 shutouts and earned her a spot on the all-region team. Her athleticism could see her make a move to the midfield or any other position on the field.

Ott has gained experience in her two seasons in College Park. She is tough and physical, but plays with plenty of skill.

Morawski will make her first-collegiate appearance in 2007. A standout ice hockey player from Michigan, she spent last year adjusting to the field game and has a firm grasp on the team's defensive concepts.

An accomplished player at the prep level, Himmelheber comes from a winning background, helping her high school squad win back-to-back state titles.

GOALKEEPERS

The goalkeeping core is solid, once again, as Meharg will turn to two-time All-American and senior co-captain Kathryn Masson to head up the unit. Masson has become one of the top goaltenders in the nation, leading the country in goals against average in each of the last two seasons.

Also looking to Masson's expertise in case will be redshirt-sophomore Alicia Grater and incoming freshman Melissa Vassolatti. With two seasons playing with Masson, Grater has certainly made the most of it, also gaining game experience last season. Vassolatti will take advantage of the opportunity to learn from one of the best netminders in the history of the program and under the guidance of associate head coach Marybeth Freeman.

SCHEDULE

Maryland's staple is a tough schedule, featuring 10 teams ranked in the final 2006 NFHCA Coaches Poll. The ACC slate is challenging enough, as all six teams were ranked in the top 10. To give the Terps another challenge, the schedule includes six league champions overall and nine of the 16 NCAA Tournament teams.

The Terps open the season with a tough three-game road stretch, while also facing three Big Ten teams in the first five games.

Maryland travels to the Midwest to face Central Michigan for its first opponent of the year on Aug. 26, then takes on Northwestern in Evanston, Ill., the following day. The Terps wrap up the road swing at Old Dominion for the first of two regular-season meetings against the Lady Monarchs. The clash has been one of the highlights of the schedule with the home-and-home series dating back to 1999.

"The regular-season series with Old Dominion always brings a tremendous competition level and is a great marker for us," said Meharg. "We learn so much about where we are and what we need to strive to do to be in a position to play our best in November."

The fourth game of the season is a clash with Michigan on Sept. 2 when the Wolverines visit College Park, then Big Ten Champion Ohio State opens the annual Terrapin Invitational on Sept. 8.

The Terrapin Invitational always brings teams from all over the country. The two-day event from Sept. 8-9 welcomes Northeastern and American, to join the Buckeyes and the Terps.

ACC play opens with Maryland going to Boston College on Sept. 15. The match brings an added bonus. The Terps can familiarize themselves with the field, site of the 2007 ACC Tournament.

NICOLE MURACCO

SARAH SCHOLL

BRIANNA DAVIES

MISSY MEHARG

SUSIE ROWE

A game of local interest will see the Terps and American battle for bragging rights on Sept. 19. It will be just their second trip to Washington, D.C., in the history of the series.

The Terps will be right in the thick of the schedule when they host Wake Forest on Sept. 22 in a rematch of the 2006 NCAA championship game. The Terps claimed the title over the Demon Deacons in Winston-Salem, N.C., 1-0.

Ivy League champion Princeton (Sept. 26), ACC-foe Virginia, who cracked the top 10 in the rankings last year, and the Atlantic 10's Temple (Sept. 30) all get their shot at the reigning national champions. But Maryland will have the luxury of home-field advantage during that four-game home stretch.

Back on the road, the Terps travel to Duke on Oct. 6, who has also made four-straight NCAA semifinal appearances. Maryland claimed its 2005 title over the Blue Devils, 1-0.

Returning home, Boston University appears on the schedule for the first time since 2004, with the meeting taking place on Oct. 7.

Its series vs. Old Dominion takes center stage at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, once again, on Oct. 12. In 2006, both games last year were decided by a 1-0 margin.

Down the final stretch, the Terps make trips to regional foe Delaware on Oct. 14, before heading south to close out the ACC slate on Oct. 20 vs. UNC.

A new opponent has appeared on the schedule for the final game of the season. The Big East's Villanova visits the Terrapins for the first-ever meeting between the teams on Oct. 26. The game will also mark the annual Senior Night, where the Terrapin seniors will be recognized.

The ACC Tournament heads north of the Mason-Dixon line for the first time ever. BC hosts the championship, Nov. 1-4. The title game will, once again, be televised on the ACC's Regional Sports Network (Comcast SportsNet, Fox Sports South, Sun Sports and NESN).

The NCAA Tournament begins the weekend of Nov. 10 and 11 on campus sites. The winners of the first and second rounds will be rewarded with a trip to the national semifinals. It will be especially rewarding for the Terrapins who host the championship rounds at their very own Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex. The event is in the state of Maryland for the first time in the history of the tournament and the Terrapins would like to take advantage of the home crowd.

The NCAA semifinals is slated for Nov. 16 and the national champion will be crowned on Nov. 18 on national television on CSTV. More information on the event can be found by logging onto www.umterps.com.

HEAD COACH MISSY MEHARG

20TH SEASON AT MARYLAND • DELAWARE '85
SIX-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

A program rich with a winning tradition, no other figure in Maryland field hockey has exemplified that tradition better than head coach Missy Meharg as she heads into her 20th season. Voted National Coach of the Year an unprecedented six times, Meharg has solidified Maryland's position among the top field hockey programs in the nation, leading the team to back-to-back NCAA Championships for the first time and the program's fifth overall in 2005 and 2006.

With a firm grasp on national top five for at least a decade, Meharg has led the Terrapins to four of the program's five national titles, while serving as an assistant coach during the team's first run in 1987. In her 19 years, the team has reached the national semifinals 10 times, including the last four years in a row, a first for the program. Maryland has also advanced to the national championship game six times under the legendary coach.

Competing in the toughest conference in the nation, Meharg has also mentored the Terps to six ACC Tournament titles and five regular season crowns. Her teams have also had six 20-win seasons, including three in the last four years.

Despite all the successes, Meharg has not slowed in her efforts to lure top talent to College Park and mentor them to success. Her players have garnered three Honda Awards, presented to the nation's most outstanding player, 70 All-Americans, seven ACC Players of the Year, six ACC Rookies of the Year, eight ACC Tournament MVP's, 69 All-ACC performers and over 100 National Academic Squad honorees.

Meharg has developed 40 Terrapins who have reached the highest level of field hockey, with 40 players competing internationally, including five players who are members of the 2007 U.S. National Team.

Meharg can be described as a leader, a motivator and a mentor. Her six National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Coach of the Year citations are unmatched by any coach in the country. She became the winningest coach at Maryland in 1998, surpassing her mentor Sue Tyler's 153 victories. Now, she has posted over 300 victories, which ranks among the top 20 winningest coaches in NCAA history.

Accolades have come in the form of six NFHCA Coach of the Year awards (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001, 2005, 2006), four ACC Coach of the Year honors (1992, 1995, 1998, 2001) and 10 Mid-Atlantic Regional Coach of the Year citations for Meharg. She captured her 300th-career win on the day the Terps defeated Wake Forest for the program's sixth conference title in College Park and is one of six Division I head coaches to win over 300 games.

Though Meharg's numbers are extraordinary, her leadership is much more. As a serious educator through sport, she recognizes the ability of athletic competition to teach life lessons. The mentor emphasizes the characteristics of sports that can be used as a vehicle to develop a meaningful life.

"Establishing a hard working, compassionate environment which assists to teach women in 'becoming' confident female leaders through their roles as a member of the Maryland field hockey team," says Meharg.

NCAA CHAMPS

ACC CHAMPS

"Coaching with enthusiasm, building a community and establishing a mindset of service models the ultimate success."

During her tenure at Maryland, she has been involved in all facets of collegiate field hockey. She currently serves on the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Regional Advisory Committee. In 1996, Meharg served as an assistant coach as former Terp All-American Kate Kauffman-Beach and the U.S. squad competed in the Olympic Games in Atlanta.

The Terps have been represented in the Olympics, the Pan American Games, the World Cup, the Olympic Qualifying Tournament and a number of other international competitions. In 2003, former Terp All-Americans Kauffman-Beach, Dina Rizzo and Keli Smith participated in the Pan American Games. Paula Infante participated in the games as a member of the Chilean National Team. Rizzo and former Terrapins Sarah Silvetti and Lauren Powley helped the U.S. qualify for the 2006 World Cup then placed sixth in the tournament, the second-best showing since 1994 where Meharg assisted the team to a bronze medal.

Meharg is an accomplished and experienced coach on the international stage. She was a member of the U.S. National Team's coaching staff from 1993-1997, which included her appearance in the 1996 Olympics, the 1994 World Cup in Dublin, Ireland, and the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina. In 1994 and 1995, she served as the head coach for the U.S. Under-21 team. After a hiatus, she returned to the U.S. Field Hockey elite level program in 2004, coaching on both the senior and junior national team selection programs. She was named head coach of the Maryland High Performance Center, establishing the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex as an east coast national training site. Her HPC Thundersticks squad won the USFHA National Women's Tournament in the summer of 2006.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Since the NFHCA began recognizing the National Coach of the Year in 1990, Missy Meharg's six awards are the most for any coach at the college level.
- Leading the Terps to four NCAA titles, Missy Meharg is one of just five coaches in Division I history to have won multiple national championships in field hockey, along with Beth Anders of Old Dominion (9), Karen Shelton of North Carolina (4), Jennifer Averill (3) of Wake Forest and Diane Wright of Connecticut (2).

During her career, Meharg has been extensively involved with teaching in the U.S. Field Hockey Association Coaching Certification Program. She has completed several certification programs which are directed by the Federation of International Hockey (F.I.H.). Meharg enjoyed doing color commentary work for television and has worked a variety of sports, including field hockey. She has completed four instructional field hockey coaching video with Championship Productions.

Meharg's collegiate playing career was nearly as successful as her coaching career is now. She was an All-America forward at the University of Delaware, where she also played lacrosse, from 1981-85. Meharg was a Honda Award nominee in field hockey in 1983, the same year she was named MVP of the East Coast Conference after leading her team in goals, assists and points. The Blue Hen hockey team reached the NCAA Championship semifinal round when she was a sophomore in 1982, and Meharg's lacrosse squad won the national championship the following spring.

Meharg enjoyed an impressive seven-year playing career with the U.S. National Team from 1985-91. During that time, she was a member of the 1986 World Cup team and an alternate to the 1987 Pan American and 1988 Olympic teams. She capped her playing career as a member of the 1991 Pan American team and the 1991 U.S. squad that unfortunately missed qualifying for the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona.

Meharg earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Delaware in 1985 and her master's degree in sports psychology from Maryland in 1989. She is the mother of two sons: 16-year old Andre, who attends Archbishop Spalding, and 15-year old Genya, who is a freshman at Severna Park High School.

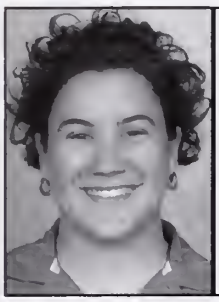
WELSH & INFANTE WIN HONDA AWARD

In 2001, defensive back Autumn Welsh became the first athlete under Missy Meharg to be recognized as the national player of the year. Welsh was named the recipient of the prestigious Honda Award, marking the first time in Maryland field hockey history that a Terps attained the honor.

After leading the Terps to back-to-back NCAA Championships in 2005 and 2006, defensive midfielder Paula Infante earned the honor both years, becoming only the third field hockey player in the history of the award to win it multiple times. Infante went on to be a top-five finalist for the coveted Honda-Broderick Cup, presented to the NCAA's Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year across all sports.

Infante (2005, 06), Welsh (2001) and women's lacrosse standout Jen Adams (2000, 2001) are the only Honda Award recipients in Maryland athletics history.

COACHING STAFF



MARYBETH FREEMAN

Associate Head Coach
5th Season at Maryland
Old Dominion '03

After four seasons on the sidelines mentoring the Terrapin goalkeepers as an assistant coach, Marybeth Freeman was elevated to associate head coach following the Terps' championship runs in 2005 and 2006.

Freeman is responsible for developing the Maryland goalkeeping core and deep defense, which has been among the best in the nation, ranking in the top five in goals against average in three of her four seasons on the bench, tying the school-record with 12 shutouts during the Terps' 2006 championship year.

"Marybeth is unquestionably a top collegiate and national coach," said head coach Missy Meharg. "She is determined, hard working, knowledgeable and exceedingly organized. She has found the coaching balance for each woman to perform to their potential."

Among the goalkeepers during her tenure, Freeman produced two-time NFHCA All-American Kathryn Masson, the only Terrapin goalie to be named to the first team. Masson has boasted the best GAA in the country in each of the last two seasons and enters 2007 with one of the top three career GAA in school history.

Aside from developing the Terrapin goalkeepers, Freeman also oversees the Terps' academic affairs, NCAA compliance, travel arrangements and recruiting efforts.

A four-year starter for the Lady Monarchs, Freeman was an integral part of a team that posted an 81-17 (.827) record throughout her collegiate career, capturing four Colonial Athletic Association titles. The two-time All-CAA selection posted an impressive 1.17 career goals against average and a .760 career save percentage.

In her sophomore season in 2000, Freeman was selected to the NCAA All-Tournament team, helping Old Dominion to its ninth NCAA Championship crown, and, as a senior, the netminder led her squad back to the NCAA semifinals. She garnered All-CAA accolades in her final campaign after registering a 1.18 GAA.

Freeman is one of the few field hockey coaches in the nation to produce instructional videos. "Becoming a Champion Goalkeeper," produced in 2003 by Championship Productions, targets goalkeepers and aspiring goalkeeping coaches.

Freeman has also been involved with the United States Field Hockey Association Futures program for both Maryland and New Jersey. She serves as site director and head goalkeeping coach at the University of Maryland, while also being head goalkeeping coach for New Jersey. She also plays a role in coaching the goalkeepers and the defense for the Maryland Thundersticks of the USFHA Elite Performance Training Center.

A native of Holland, Pa., Freeman attended Council Rock High School where she had a school-record 19 shutouts as a senior, while also captaining her team to three Suburban League championship titles.

A 2003 graduate from Old Dominion with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Freeman was a four-time NFHCA National Academic Squad honoree and a CAA Scholar-Athlete.

TJERK VAN HERWAARDEN

Technical Director/Coach
3rd Season at Maryland
HES '97

Embarking on his third season on the coaching staff, Tjerk van Herwaarden has been with Maryland during both of its championship runs, coming to College Park in July of 2005 as an assistant coach. During the summer of 2007, he was named the team's Technical Director/Coach.

"Tjerk has had an incredible impact on the Terps, as we have captured back-to-back NCAA titles," said head coach Missy Meharg. "His patience and ability to read tactical adjustments are major strengths. His game knowledge is not only evident in training sessions but also in video work and fundamental teaching sessions."

A native of the Netherlands, van Herwaarden has gained extensive coaching experience and knowledge of the game having served as an assistant coach, head coach and technical director at every level over the last decade.

Prior to joining the Maryland coaching staff, van Herwaarden had served as head coach of the Gooische women's team 2nd Division in the Netherlands, which is considered to have the best field hockey competition in the world, since 2003. His main focus was on development of technical and tactical skills.

From 1999-2003, van Herwaarden was an assistant coach of the Kampong 1st Ladies club team. Kampong reached the semifinals of the National Championship in back-to-back years. While with that team, he mentored some of the country's top field hockey players, who went on to win a silver medal at the Athens Olympics and are currently members of the National team.

Van Herwaarden has devoted much of his time teaching the sport of field hockey. He was coach for the KNHB, the Royal Dutch field hockey association, youth development program for five years and was a coach conductor for the same organization, where he planned course programs and the educational structure for coursework related to field hockey.

In the spring of 2006, van Herwaarden was named an assistant coach of the US Men's National Field Hockey team, traveling to tournaments in Bermuda and China. Her will be on the sidelines for the 2007 Pan American Games in Brazil, as well. He has also coached the women's U16 team in 2006, traveling to his home country, and the U19 team in Argentina in 2007.

In 2006, van Herwaarden was selected to work with the U.S. Field Hockey's new men's Regional Training Center and was also head coach of the Maryland Thundersticks women's team, which won 2006 USFHA Elite Performance Training Center National Championship.

Van Herwaarden is the owner and co-founder of Worldcamp USA, which runs Dutch field hockey camps in the United States, and also serves as technical director. He has been a clinician for seven years at the National Field Hockey Festival and is a KNHB Level A and B licensed coach.

Van Herwaarden was also an account manager for SNS Bank in the Netherlands dating back to 1999 until leaving his post to come to Maryland. He also was a guest speaker at the National Field Hockey Coaches Association convention in 2005. He earned a business economics degree at HES, the college for economics in Amsterdam, in 1997.

PAULA INFANTE

Undergraduate Assistant Coach
1st Season at Maryland
Maryland

The most decorated player in the history of the program, two-time Honda Award winner Paula Infante joins the staff this season as an undergraduate assistant coach. A four-time All-American, Infante helped the Terps to its most successful four-year span, which included back-to-back NCAA Championship titles in 2005 and 2006, and an ACC crown.

"Maryland is fortunate Paula aspires to graduate with two degrees and coach this year with this young Terrapin team," said head coach Missy Meharg. "Her team play, coupled with world-class athleticism, will lift the daily training session to that of championship level."

Only the second Terrapin to win the Honda Award, presented to the nation's top field hockey player, Infante's mark on the program can be seen all over the record books.

Infante logged many firsts while wearing the Maryland uniform. The only player in the program to receive the Honda Award twice, she was also the first to be named first team All-American four-straight years and the second athlete in a team sport in Maryland Athletics history to garner first team honors four times, as well. She is also the only four-time All-NCAA Tournament honoree.

Infante is also the only Terp in Maryland field hockey history to win a conference player of the year award multiple times, garnering ACC Defensive Player of the Year nods twice in the first three years of the honor.

The four-time All-ACC performer led Maryland to four-consecutive NCAA Tournament semifinals appearances, a first in the history of the program. The Terps also advanced to the ACC finals in her final two seasons, winning the crown in 2005.

Ranked among the all-time Terrapin greats, Infante finished her career in College Park with 58 career goals and 139 career points, tied for fifth and ranked seventh, respectively, all-time. Her 19 goals as a freshman in 2003 is among the single-season most prolific scoring years all-time at Maryland.

Infante even left an imprint in the NCAA record books. Her five goals and 10 points in the first round of the NCAA Tournament versus Delaware were a tournament record. The five tallies also tied the school record for goals in game.

As a defender, Infante's presence in the backfield made it one of the best in the country. The defense was ranked among the top in team goals against average while she was at Maryland, including leading the nation at 0.70 during her senior campaign and ranked second in 2006 (1.01). The Terps recorded 12 shutouts in 2006, tying a school record.

On offense, she was among the top two goal scorers in each of her seasons on the field, leading the team as a freshman and sophomore.

After Maryland's 2005 national championship run, Infante was awarded the ACC's prestigious Mary Garber Award, given to the conference's top female athlete of the year across all sports. She was the Terps' first female honoree since 2001 and the first Terrapin field hockey player.

Completing her degree in physical education and kinesiology, Infante also excelled in the classroom, earning a spot on the NFHCA's National Academic Squad twice and was once an All-ACC Academic honoree. She was also one of 45 athletes in the ACC to receive the Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

A native of Santiago, Chile, Infante is the mother of six-year old Agustín. She is a member of the Chilean National Team, where she served as captain and participated in the 1999 and 2002 Pan American games and Four Nation Tournament.

Team Consultant
9th Season at Maryland
St. Francis

Dr. Jerry Lynch is in his ninth season as the team consultant, assisting in the psychological and mental development of the Maryland field hockey program. The prominent sports psychologist has over 30 years of experience and has been a consultant to over 24 international and national championship teams, including clients in the PGA, NFL and NBA, as well as, numerous collegiate teams. He has also served as an advisor for several international organizations, from the Swiss skydiving team to the Filipino Olympic Committee.

"Athletes need leaders who are clear and honest, while staying focused on the athlete after Maryland," said Missy Meharg. "Jerry helps the staff stay in the yearly hunt for ACC and NCAA titles, while cultivating championship lives."

Lynch has authored nine books and has published over 75 articles. Lynch is also a renowned speaker and motivator on the national and international level, recently acting as the keynote speaker at the Auckland World Wide Institute. He also delivered the keynote address at the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Conference in Philadelphia in 2002.

Lynch is the founder and director of Way of Champions based in Santa Cruz, Calif. His expertise aided in the Terps' quest of the 1999 NCAA and ACC title runs. He has also worked closely with the Maryland women's lacrosse program which captured an unprecedented seven-consecutive national titles 1995-2001. Maryland women's basketball and volleyball teams have also used Lynch as a consultant.

After earning his bachelor's degree in English from St. Francis College, Lynch earned his master's degree and Ph.D. in psychology from Penn State University. In addition, he has earned a Ph.D. in comparative religions from the American College of Theology.

2006 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS SUCCESSFULLY DEFEND NATIONAL TITLE

TERPS WIN BACK-TO-BACK TITLES

For the first time in the history of the program, Maryland won back-to-back national titles, claiming the 2006 NCAA Championship with a 1-0 victory over ACC-rival and top-seeded Wake Forest in Winston-Salem, N.C. It was the program's fifth title overall, four coming under 19-year head coach Missy Meharg.

The Terps' run to the title began in College Park, where they disposed of three of the four teams by shutout. Richmond was Maryland's first victim, falling 4-0 in the first down, then went down to the wire with Penn State, coming away with a 1-0 win to advance to the national semifinals for the fourth-consecutive year, a first in the history of the program. Another close battle in the semifinals but the Terps came out victorious in penalty strokes, 2-1, over Connecticut.

Despite a home crowd and a top-seeding, the Demon Deacons could not get past Maryland's defense. The Terps, on the other hand, scored the only goal of the game in the first half to claim their second-straight title.

Five Terrapins earned NCAA All-Tournament honors, including senior Paula Infante, the first player in school history to be named to the team four times. Joining Infante were senior Emily Trycinski, who scored the Terps' goal, senior Christina Restivo, who made two saves in the stroke off vs. the Huskies, sophomore Susie Rowe and junior Janneke van Leeuwen.

INFANTE NAMED HONDA AWARD WINNER AGAIN

Paula Infante recorded another amazing feat. She became only the third player in the 31-year history of the award and the first Maryland field hockey player to receive the prestigious Honda Award, presented to the nation's most outstanding player, multiple times. Infante went on to be one of the top-five finalists for the Honda-Broderick Cup.

Infante, who was a finalist for the award three times, left Maryland leaving behind a legacy of excellence. She was the only four-time First Team All-American and four-time NCAA All-Tournament team honoree in the history of the program. She was also the only multiple conference player of the year honoree, garnering ACC Defensive Player of the Year accolades for the second time in 2006.

Infante, who ranks in a tie for fifth in career goals (58) and seventh in career assists (139), was also All-ACC, All-ACC Tournament and Mid-Atlantic All-Region every season.

FIVE PLAYERS RECOGNIZED AS ALL-AMERICANS

For the second-consecutive year, Maryland had five player achieve All-America status, highlighted by Paula Infante's fourth first team All-America honor, the first player in the history of the program to earn first team national honors four times.

Junior Kathryn Masson became the first Terrapin goalkeeper to earn first team nods, while sophomore Susie Rowe was also a first-team honoree. Senior defender Kristina Edmonds received her first All-America citation when she was voted to the second team, while freshman Nicole Muracco was named to the third team.

Kristina Edmonds

MEHARG IS NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR FOR THE SIXTH TIME

After mentoring the Terrapins to their second-consecutive NCAA title and the program's fifth overall (four under Meharg), 19-year veteran head coach Missy Meharg was selected the National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Coach of the Year for an unprecedented sixth time in her career.

Last year, Meharg became the only five-time national coach of the year. Maryland was ranked No. 1 for the entire regular season and through the ACC Tournament, also leading the Terps to clinch a share of the conference regular-season crown and a No. 1 seed in the league championship.

In 2006, five Terps were named All-American and All-ACC, Paula Infante was tabbed the Honda Award winner and ACC Defensive Player of the Year for the second time, while Nicole Muracco was voted the ACC's Rookie of the Year.

The Terrapin defense was tops in the nation, boasting a 0.70 goals against average, while the offense was among the top 15.

TERPS "D" UP

Maryland's staple has been its defense over the last few years. In 2006, the Terps showed why, leading the nation in team goals against average (0.70). The backfield posted a school-record tying 12 shutouts on the season, also ranking third in the country in shutouts per game average (0.48).

The defense's anchor has been goalkeeper Kathryn Masson. Becoming the first goalkeeper in the program to earn first team All-America honors, she led the country in goals against average for the second-consecutive year, boasting a career-best 0.70. She was second in save percentage at 80.7 percent. Other Maryland defenders to earn postseason recognition were All-Americans Paula Infante, Kristina Edmonds and Susie Rowe. Infante was awarded the Honda Award for the second time and was the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year, for the second-straight year, as well.

INFANTE VOTED ACC'S TOP DEFENDER

For the second-consecutive year, Paula Infante was voted the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year, voted on by the league's coaches. Infante has won the award in two of the three years of the award. She also became the first Terrapin in the history of the progam to garner multiple player of the year nods.

Maryland also had a school-record tying All-ACC performers, the most since 2000. Joining Infante on the all-conference sqad were Kristina Edmonds, Kathryn Masson, Nicole Muracco and Susie Rowe. Infante and Rowe also went on to be named to the All-ACC Tournament team, Infante's fourth-straight recoginition.

MURACCO TABBED ACC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Nicole Muracco made a significant impact since stepping onto the field in College Park and was noticed. After leading Maryland in scoring, tallying 15 goals and 33 points, she was named the ACC's Rookie of the Year, which was announced at the conclusion of the ACC Tournament.

Starting in 19 of 21 games, Muracco was also the only rookie in the league to also be named to the All-ACC team. She was the only player in the conference to garner ACC Player of the Week nods multiple times, receiving the weekly accolade three times. At the end of the season, she also earned a spot on the NFHCA's third team All-American squad.

Muracco is the second Terrapin to receive the ACC Rookie of the Year honor since teammate Janneke van Leeuwen nabbed the award in 2004.

SENIOR CLASS LEAVES ON TOP

The 2006 Terrapin seniors left College Park on top and achieving feats no other class can claim. This class is the only one to win back-to-back NCAA Championships and is also the only one to make four-straight trips to the NCAA semifinals.

The seniors graduate with a career record of 83-14 (.856), which includes three 20-win seasons and just four losses over the last two seasons. They also claimed the 2005 ACC crown. All six seniors earned at least one conference, regional or national performance and/or academic honor.

TERPS HONORED BY PRESIDENT AND GOVERNOR

Maryland earned its second-straight invitation to the White House for Champions day in mid-June. The Terps' visit came after they spent time with President George W. Bush for the celebration of the 2006-07 NCAA champions.

The Terrapins briefly met with the president before taking a team photo with him. Maryland, along with the other NCAA Champion teams in attendance, joined the President Bush on the South Lawn where he addressed the teams, support staff, administrators and other government officials. Senior Emily Trycinski represented the Terps on the stage with the president.

The Terrapins were the first-ever field hockey squad to earn an invitation to the White House in 1987.

vs. Pacific

0 — 6 (#1)

STANFORD, Calif. - A pair of goals each from senior Paula Infante and junior Janneke van Leeuwen led the NCAA Champion Terrapins to a 6-0 rout of Pacific in its season opener. The Terps scored four goals in the second half to break the game wide open.

Reigning national player of the year Paula Infante scored what was eventually the game winner off of one of Maryland's nine penalty corners in the 27th minute. Van Leeuwen recorded her first of the afternoon in the 39th minute to give the Terps a 2-0 lead heading into the break.

In the second half, Maryland scored three goals in a six-minute span to pull away. Infante knocked in a loose ball in the 48th minute, followed by senior Emily Trycinski's tally in the 52nd minute off a blocked shot. Van Leeuwen capped her afternoon with an unassisted, backhanded shot to give the Terps a 5-0 advantage.

In the final minute, senior Megan Fox found redshirt sophomore Kim Ziegler on a cross inside the circle to end the scoring spree.

Junior All-American Kathryn Masson swatted away all six of the Tigers' shots on goal to claim the shutout.

at Stanford

4 (#1) — 1

STANFORD, Calif. - For the 10th-straight year, top-ranked and reigning NCAA champion Maryland opened the season with a 2-0 record, defeating Stanford, 4-1. Freshman Nicole Muracco notched two goals in the final minutes to secure the win.

Maryland scored their goals in bunches. At 10:54 of the first half, the Terps struck gold when senior Paula Infante, a three-time All-American, scored off an assist from junior Janneke van Leeuwen and Berber Rischen. Then at 13:30, the Terrapins scored again on an unassisted goal by senior Emily Trycinski.

Maryland outshot the Cardinal (1-1), 11-4, in the first half, and appeared to have the game in hand when Stanford scored at 55:43 in the second half. Aska Sturdevan rocketed a shot past Terrapin goalkeeper Kathryn Masson to cut the Maryland lead in half at 2-1. Both teams played even through the next 13 minutes, but then the visitors struck quick on goals by freshman Nicole Muracco at 68:28 and 69:25 to secure the victory.

Stanford goalkeeper Madison Bell faced 30 shots from the Maryland offense and was credited with a eleven saves. Terp netminder Kathryn Masson notched five.

GAME 3
Aug. 29, 2006
at California

5 (#1) — 0

BERKLEY, Calif. - Freshman Alexis Pappas' goal less than five minutes into the game held up for the game-winner and No. 1 Maryland dominated California, 5-0, closing out a three-game road trip with its third-straight victory. Paula Infante became the ninth Terrapin in school history to score 50 career goals.

Making her second collegiate start, Alexis Pappas got things going for the Terrapins (3-0) early on, scoring her first-career goal at 4:12.

The Terrapin offense was dominant, once again, scoring at least four goals for the third-consecutive game after posting a 6-0 victory over Pacific and a 4-1 win over Stanford over the weekend. It was also executing almost perfectly, executing on three of its six penalty corners.

Seniors Paula Infante and Emily Trycinski extended their scoring streaks, contributing at least a goal in each of the team's first three contests of the season. Career goal No. 50 for Infante came at the 13:04 mark, moving her into 10th-place all-time on Maryland's all-time career goals list.

Sophomore defender Susie Rowe sealed the deal, scoring both of the team's goals in the second half on penalty corners. Junior Janneke van Leeuwen and senior Berber Rischen each had three assists apiece, all on penalty corners.

Rowe and the rest of the defensive was just as dominant over California (2-1). The Bears were allowed just one shot.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - As has been the case in the series between Maryland and Old Dominion, another match came down to the wire. The Terrapins upended the fourth-ranked Lady Monarchs, 1-0. It is the seventh time in the last 10 meetings the game has been decided by a goal.

"This game is always one of the most competitive games of the season," said five-time national coach of the year Missy Meharg. "ODU is well-coached and it is always a good test and a marker of where we are in our development. Whenever we can come out with a `W' against Old Dominion, it's a good game."

Both teams came into the game undefeated, but ODU (3-1) was looking to settle the score for an NCAA semifinal tournament loss to the Terps last season. The Terps (4-0), on the other hand, were playing in front of the home crowd for the first time this season. Maryland dominated the time of possession in the opening half, attempting eight shots, but ODU goalkeeper Kelly Driscoll's six saves in the period kept the game scoreless.

The second half was just the opposite as the Lady Monarchs seemed to come out of the break more energized and with upset on their minds. The scoring opportunities for both teams, however, were scarce. ODU outshot Maryland, 4-3, in the period, but it was Maryland who broke through for the deciding goal.

On the counterattack, senior Paula Infante made a long pass from the 25 yard line into the circle where freshman Nicole Muracco was waiting at the top of the circle. Muracco drew out ODU's Driscoll from the cage and Muracco dished off to redshirt sophomore Kim Ziegler, who was standing uncontested in front of the open net and tapped the ball in for the goal with just over eight minutes remaining in the game.

Down by just one tally, ODU pushed forward and drew a penalty corner in the 65th minute, the only one of the half. However, the shot by Caroline Nichols was saved by Terrapin junior goaltender Kathryn Masson as Maryland would hold on to the 1-0 victory.

Masson finished the game with three saves and posted her second shutout of the season and the team's third.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - In the first meeting between the teams since 1998, top-ranked Maryland held off a persistent Temple squad, 2-1, on the first day of the Terrapin Invitational.

The scoreboard read a one-goal affair but the Terps (5-0) gave the Owls (3-2) few opportunities during the match. Maryland outshot Temple, 23-1, but the lone shot for Temple was a crucial one.

In the 15th minute, a melee in the Terps' defensive circle was all the Owls needed to give Maryland its first deficit of the year. Mandi Ruth took control of the ball and passed off to teammate Charise Young, giving Temple a 1-0 lead.

The Terps had not trailed in any of its first four games of the season until this point and Temple held on to its lead with the play of goalkeeper Erin Hanshue, who finished with 12 saves. But before the break, Maryland broke through. Freshman Nicole Muracco equalized the contest with a backhanded shot.

The second half was more of the same. Maryland continued to pepper Hanshue with 10 shots, but it was not until the 50th minute when junior Janneke van Leeuwen knocked in a rebound to score the go-ahead goal.

Maryland had six penalty corners in each half to end with 12, while the Owls were blanked in the category.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Top-ranked Terrapin had help from seven different players in a 7-2 rout of Northwestern on the second day of the Terrapin Invitational. Maryland improved its all-time record to 20-0 in 10 years of the tournament after sweeping the two-day competition. Another local squad, American, also picked up a victory, topping Temple, 3-1.

Freshman Alexis Pappas led the Maryland attack with a goal and two assists.

The Terps (6-0) found their scoring touch after two consecutive games scoring two goals or less. Maryland had three and four goals in the first and second half, respectively, dominating the action from the opening whistle. Freshman Nicole Muracco got the Terps rolling in the 16th minute, followed by a goal from redshirt sophomore Kim Ziegler at 18:29. A backhanded slap shot from the top of the shooting circle from junior Janneke van Leeuwen gave the reigning national champions the three-goal cushion.

In the second half, sophomore defender Susie Rowe kept the scoring onslaught going, tallying her third goal of the season just four minutes and five seconds into the second period. Freshman Bri Davies assisted on senior Paula Infante's goal 58 minutes into the game for the first point of her career. Sophomore Sarah Scholl also picked up an assist on the play.

Northwestern's (3-3) Alison Bullock and Annie Bosslet interrupted the scoring spree, tallying back-to-back goals at 58:14 and 63:42, respectively. But the Terps got the last word of the game as Pappas deflected a long pass from classmate Davies with just five minutes remaining in the game, making the final score, 7-2.

The Terps outshot the Wildcats, 34-5, and NU keeper Emily Kyle stopped half of Maryland's shots, collecting 17 saves.

Maryland's Paula Infante moved up to eighth in the career goals list, tallying her 51st.

GAME 7
Sept. 13, 2006
Delaware

0 — 3 #1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Sisters Ameliet and Berber Rischen each scored their first goals of the season, helping the No. 1 Terrapins to their seventh-consecutive victory of the season. Maryland topped Delaware, 3-0, defeating the Blue Hens for the eighth-straight time dating back to 1999.

Freshman Nicole Muracco's goal off a perfect baseline pass from junior Janneke van Leeuwen in the 12th minute was the eventual clincher, as the Terps (7-0) picked up their fourth shutout of the season.

The youngest of the Rischen sisters, freshman Ameliet, was the first of the two to score. However, it was older sister senior Berber who gave Ameliet the pass to score off the penalty corner at 21:18, extending the Terps' lead to 2-0.

Berber broke through for Maryland's final goal of the afternoon at 56:31, taking the ball herself off the pushout on the penalty corner at 56:31.

Maryland was in complete control of the game, attempting a season-high tying 34 shots, while limiting the Blue Hens to just two, both coming in the second half. The Terps also had 13 penalty corners to UD's two. Blue Hen's Nikki Rhoades had 12 saves in the game, while Maryland's Kathryn Masson saved both of Delaware's attempts.

GAME 8
Sept. 16, 2006
Boston College

#8 0 — 5 #1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - For the second-straight game, No. 1 Maryland used a balanced attack to take down its opponents. The Terrapins had five different scorers in their 5-0 thumping of No. 8 Boston College in the ACC opener.

The Eagles (5-2) suffered just their second loss of the season and were the first conference squad to get a chance at knocking off the reigning ACC Champions. Maryland came out unscathed, improving its overall record to 8-0.

A dominant performance by the Terps saw them attempt 20 shots, 12 in the second half, where they put the game away scoring three of the five goals. Maryland also outcornered BC, 11-2.

Senior Berber Rischen broke a scoreless game in the 14th minute, taking the ball through traffic and punching it in the cage for the score.

Freshman Nicole Muracco put the Terps in front, 2-0, in the closing minutes of the first half off a pass from senior Emily Trycinski.

After the break, Boston College was able to keep the Terps at bay on the strength of Julia Berkowitz's performance in the net. She had six of her eight saves in the second period.

However, 2005 national player of the year Paula Infante, senior Kristina Edmonds and junior Janneke van Leeuwen each tallied goals, Edmonds' on a penalty stroke, within a three-minute span from 51:26 to 54:26 to beak the game wide open.

Junior All-American Kathryn Masson turned away all five of the Eagles' shots and notched her fourth shutout, the team's fifth, of the season.

GAME 9
Sept. 17, 2006
James Madison

#13 2 — 4 #1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - For the second-straight day, top-ranked Maryland downed a top-15 opponent, defeating No. 13 James Madison, 4-2. Junior Janneke van Leeuwen led the Terps, scoring the game-winning goal.

The Terrapins (9-0) were coming off a 5-0 victory over No. 8 Boston College on Saturday to open the ACC portion of the schedule.

Maryland has enjoyed a balanced attack as of late, as four different players tallied goals in Sunday's victory. On Saturday, the Terps had five players score, while no Terrapin has scored more than once in a match over the last six games.

All four of Maryland's tallies came in the first half. Freshman Nicole Muracco scored on a pass from senior Paula Infante at 10:52 to give the Terps a 1-0 lead. But the Dukes (5-3) responded not long after that, as Lauren Walls' shot from the right side evened things up at 12:02, 1-1.

A back-and-forth battle, the Terps outshot JMU, 11-6, for the game, Maryland's lowest shot output since Aug. 29. Senior Berber Rischen's (Rotterdam, Netherlands) long shot to the opposite side of the cage broke the tie in the 19th minute. The Terps would not look back.

Maryland built a 3-1 cushion, as junior Janneke van Leeuwen batted in a blocked shot in the 32nd minute for the eventual deciding goal. In the midst of a scramble in front of the cage, redshirt-sophomore Kim Ziegler scored what would turn out to be the last goal of the afternoon for the Terrapins.

Still testing one another in the second half, the Terrapins had the slight edge in shots, 5-4, and penalty corners, 4-3, in the period. The Terps could not add another tally and JMU managed to breathe some life, finding the back of the net on an Ashley Walls goal in the 50th minute. But the Terps were too much for James Madison as the they would go on to claim the win by the final 4-2 margin.

GAME 10
Sept. 23, 2006
at Wake Forest

#1 3 — 2 #2

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Maryland left no doubt who was the number 1 team in the nation, defeating No. 2 Wake Forest, 3-2. The Terps became the first team in the nation to win 10 games and is one of only two undefeated teams remaining.

"Today's performance was a real team effort," said five-time national coach of the year Missy Meharg. "Wake Forest is a fantastic team. Maryland showed so much maturity coming from behind and then scoring in the final two minutes to win after being scored on. I am pleased with how hard we worked and really pleased with the backfield, especially."

Wake Forest (9-1, 1-1 ACC) attacked immediately after the opening whistle, taking an early 1-0 lead just one minute and four seconds into the game on a goal by Tracey Scott. The Demon Deacons seemed to be in control after that, until a penalty shot was called against them. However, NCAA and ACC Champion Maryland (10-0, 2-0 ACC) missed the free opportunity in the eighth minute, but did not take long to make up for it.

Trailing in a game for just the second time this season, senior Paula Infante, last year's national player of the year, tried to even the score, taking a hard shot from the right side. The shot was saved by WF goalkeeper Kristina Gagliardi, but the ball rebounded back to the top of the circle where junior Janneke van Leeuwen, the 2004 Rookie of the Year, slapped it in past Gagliardi, tying the game up at 1-1 in the ninth minute. Gagliardi entered the game as the nation's goals against average leader.

Maryland took the lead on a perfectly executed play between the Rischen sisters in the 31st minute. On the restart, senior Berber Rischen made a precisely placed pass from outside the circle to the stick of freshman Ameliet Rischen, deflecting the ball into the far open net.

In the second half, the Terps held on to a 2-1 advantage. But Wake Forest, who was ranked No. 1 in offense heading into the week, was not going away. Michelle Kasold also had a perfect pass on the baseline to an open Christine Suggs who scored, tying the match at 2-2.

Maryland also came into the game with a high-powered offense, which ranked No. 3 in the nation, however. Once again, Infante stirred things up on the offensive end. Infante rocketed another shot at the goalie, which was saved, but freshman Nicole Muracco was in the right place at the right time and knocked in the rebound for the eventual game-winning goal with less than two minutes remaining in the game.

On the defensive end, Maryland goalie, Kathryn Masson, had four saves, while the Deacon's Gagliardi registered six.

The Terrapins continue to show their offensive balance as different goal scorers have tallied goals in a game for the seventh-consecutive game.

Maryland also extends its win streak to 19 games, dating back to last season. It's the longest win streak for the Terps since 2000. The win is also the first over the Deacs for Maryland in Kentner Stadium since 1999.

GAME 11
Sept. 29, 2006
at Virginia

#1 MARYLAND 5 — 1 VIRGINIA #8

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - After a 1-1 tie early in the first half, No. 1-ranked Maryland scored four unanswered goals to runaway with a 5-1 victory over No. 8 Virginia. Reigning ACC Player of the Week Nicole Muracco scored twice in the victory.

Maryland (11-0, 3-0 ACC) got on the board with their first shot of the game, which came in the sixth minute of play. Senior Berber Rischen deflected the hit towards the cage and freshman Nicole Muracco tipped the ball down and in, putting the Terps on the board first.

The Cavaliers (8-4, 1-2 ACC) attacked the Maryland scoring circle and junior All-American Kathryn Masson saved the first of two attempts, but Traci Ragukas was able to push the ball into the cage and knot the score at 1-1 in the 12th minute.

With time winding down in the half, freshman Ameliet Rischen took a pass, eluded a defender and the goalkeeper, and sent the ball into the net in the 33rd minute, giving the Terps a 2-1 lead heading into the half.

On Maryland's first penalty corner of the second half, senior Kristina Edmonds started the variation to the left where sophomore Susie Rowe sent a ball into the cage for a 3-1 advantage.

The Virginia offense was then able to generate two penalty corners but Masson, who logged seven saves on the evening, made the stop on both direct strikes.

Despite playing a man short, the Terrapins were able to maintain their lead. Masson denied the Cavaliers on successive shots. After returning to full strength, national player of the year Paula Infante fed Berber Rischen along the endline, who attacked and scored on a short angle in the 63rd minute to make the score 4-1.

A corner in the final minute gave Maryland another scoring opportunity. Berber Rischen's shot was tipped into the cage by Muracco, and the Terps closed the game with a 5-1 advantage.

GAME 12
Oct. 1, 2006
vs. Michigan
overtime

#1 MARYLAND 2 — 1 MICHIGAN #20

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. - Heading into the game with an 11-game win streak on the line, the No. 1 Terrapin field hockey team was forced into overtime but eventually came away with a 2-1 victory over No. 20 Michigan at Bigler Field on the campus of Penn State University. The last undefeated team in the country, the Terps' 12-game winning streak to open the season is the best start in school history.

Reigning national champion Maryland is also inching towards the school's record of 29-straight victories which spanned the 1999 and 2000 seasons. The Terps are currently riding a 21-game win streak dating back to last season.

Coming off a commanding 5-1 win at Virginia on Friday, the Terps dominated the Woliverines (5-7), outshooting them, 13-6. However, Michigan challenged the Terps, taking advantage of some Maryland's mistakes in the backfield.

Freshman Nicole Muracco notched the game-winning tally less than three minutes into the overtime frame, corralling the ball in the Michigan (5-7) circle before chipping high to the top of the cage past goalkeeper Beth Riley. Muracco has scored a goal in the last eight-consecutive games and has had a point the Terrapins' last 11 matches.

In the first half, after Michigan nearly scored on an interception, the Terrapins responded with a goal just moments later as sophomore Sarah Scholl positioned herself along the left post and redirected a hard shot from Muracco to give the Terps the initial lead at the 17:45 mark.

Sarah Scholl (22) and Nicole Muracco (13)

The Wolverines continued to pressure Maryland's side of the field. The teams traded penalty corners and scoring opportunities in the final minutes of the half, but neither could convert and Maryland held a one-goal advantage entering the halftime intermission.

Michigan reemerged from the break rushing the Terps' circle to knot the score at one goal apiece less than four minutes into the half. Kelly Fitzpatrick intercepted a pass deep in Maryland territory, stepped into the circle and drove a hard shot to the far, low corner of the cage.

The Terps gained back-to-back penalty corner opportunities in the waning moments of regulation, but Wolverine goalkeeper Beth Riley made stops on both attempts to force the extra period.

GAME 13
Oct. 7, 2006
Duke

#5 DUKE 2 — 0 MARYLAND #1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland lost its first game of the season, suffering a 2-0 setback to fifth-ranked Duke. The loss snapped a 12-game opening season win streak, the best start to the season in school history, and a 21-game win streak dating back to last season.

The Maryland (12-1, 3-1 ACC) defense did an outstanding job of limiting Duke (9-3, 2-2 ACC) to just four shots in the game, but the Blue Devils made the most of their opportunities. In the seventh minute, Marian Dickinson deflected Cara-Lynn Lopresti's shot into the goal, giving Duke a 1-0 lead. It wasn't until the 60th minute the Blue Devils would score again, as Amy Stopford knocked in the ball on a penalty corner.

The Terrapins did not have many more opportunities than Duke. Maryland did put together a couple of really good chances, beating the Blue Devils' defense to get a 1-v-1 and a 2-v-1 opportunity with the goalkeeper on two separate occasions, including early on in the third minute. Both times, Honda Award winner and three-time All-American Paula Infante carried the ball out of the backfield, sprinting passed several defenders, and drew the goalie out of the net. But the dish off to an unmarked teammate was just off the mark.

The first penalty corner of the game for either team did not come until the second half, both drawing three each in the period. Maryland could not convert on any of its chances, while the Blue Devils, who lead the nation in penalty corners per game, capitalized on one.

It is the first time since the 2004 NCAA Tournament semifinal loss to Wake Forest that the Terrapins have been shut out, a string of 37 games. It also ends freshman Nicole Muracco's string of 11 games with at least a point. Muracco had been named ACC Player of the Week the last two weeks in a row.

The loss is also junior All-American goalkeeper Kathryn

Masson's first to the Blue Devils, having posted victories in each of the last five meetings, including the 1-0 victory in the championship game of the NCAA Tournament.

GAME 14

at Princeton

#1 Maryland 4 — Princeton 1

PRINCETON, N.J. - After a tied first half, the No. 1 Maryland scored three second-half goals to cruise to a 4-1 victory at Princeton. Freshman Nicole Muracco scored half the team's goals to lead the Terps to victory.

The Terrapins (13-1) looked to bounce back from a 2-0 setback to Duke over the weekend heading into the match. Princeton (6-5) scored early with a backhanded blast in front of the net from Tina Bortz, less than five minutes into the game.

Maryland almost had an answer for the upset-minded Tigers. On one of their six first-half penalty corners, the Terps' Susie Rowe sent a well-placed shot towards the cage, squeaking the ball passed PU goalkeeper Allison Nemeth. However, Sarah Reinprecht stopped the ball on the line for one of her two defensive saves, protecting Princeton's 1-0 lead.

It looked as if Princeton would keep their lead heading into the halftime break. As the final ticks of the half wound down, Maryland drew a penalty corner. Nicole Muracco then deflected classmate's Ameliet Rischen's shot through the goalie's legs to even the score with no time remaining.

Muracco scored just 3 minutes and 44 seconds into the second half, giving Maryland a 2-1 advantage. The goal would eventually stand as the game winner.

Rowe tallied her first goal of the contest in the 43rd minute on a penalty corner, while redshirt sophomore Kim Ziegler rounded out the scoring in the 62nd minute with an unassisted goal.

Maryland has won the last seven meetings between the teams and leads the all-time series, 11-4-1.

GAME 15
Oct. 14, 2006
at Old Dominion

#1 Maryland 1 — Old Dominion #3 0

NORFOLK, Va. - The only goal of the game was a breakaway open-net tally by freshman Nicole Muracco in the second half to lift top-ranked Maryland over No. 3 Old Dominion. The Terrapins sweep the regular-season home-and-home series for the second time in four years.

The Terps (14-1) won the earlier meeting against the Lady Monarchs in College Park, on Sept. 4, 1-0. As in the first game in September, it took one late goal to decide the contest. Honda Award winner and senior Paula Infante drew the goalkeeper out of the cage and dished off to Muracco from the top of the circle. Muracco reached for the pass in front of the net and took the wide open shot at 42:18. The goal would stand as the game winner.

Old Dominion (13-2) had an opportunity to take the lead first. In the 38th minute, the Lady Monarchs were awarded a stroke and ODU's Dana Sensenig's shot was saved by Maryland keeper Christina Restivo, who entered the game to face the penalty stroke, preserving the scoreless tie. Sensenig led the nation in strokes, boasting a 100 percent conversion rate heading into the game.

Maryland was outshot for the first time this season, 12-11, while both teams were even with eight saves. Junior Kathryn Masson, who played all 70 minutes, made a season-high seven saves. ODU's Kelly Driscoll registered eight. The Terps were also outcornered, 8-3.

The Terrapins' win at Foreman Field is Old Dominion's first home loss of the season.

Albany

Albany 0 — #1 Maryland 6

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - 2006 Honda Award winner Paula Infante scored twice in Maryland's 6-0 victory over Albany. Four other Terrapins also scored in the win, as the team improved to 15-1 on the season.

In the first-ever meeting between the teams, Maryland jumped on the Great Danes (11-5) early on, scoring in the first 30 seconds of the game, but it was disallowed. The Terps finally made up for the call, as Paula Infante slammed the ball into the back of the cage on a penalty corner at 21:36.

Before the end of the half, the Terps score twice more, with senior Emily Trycinski and freshman Ameliet Rischen each tallying their fourth goals of the season at 29:05 and 32:37, respectively.

Maryland tacked on three more goals in the second period before calling it a day. At 36:24, freshman Kristina Foster sailed a shot into the top right corner of the cage after deflecting off the goalkeeper's mitt to make the score, 4-0. The goal was the first of her career.

Both Kristina Edmonds and Janneke van Leeuwen connected with Infante for the second time on a penalty corner in the 49th minute to make the 5-0. Senior Berber Rischen finished off the afternoon with a hard shot into the right corner, as well.

Maryland limited the Great Danes, who had upset then-No. 11 American, 1-0, earlier in the season, to just one shot and one penalty corner. UA goalie Ashley Ross stopped seven of the Terps' 17 shots.

Maryland keepers Christina Restivo and Alicia Grater split even time in the cage, helping the Terrapins post their seventh shut out of the season.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Alexis Pappas' two goals led top-ranked Maryland to a 5-1 victory over No. 19 and local rival American. It is the second game in a row at least four Terps have scored in a game.

Senior Berber Rischen broke the scoreless tie in the 12th minute to give the Terps a 1-0 lead. Rischen made her way through the AU defenders to the open spot in the shooting circle to take her shot.

Freshman Alexis Pappas gave Maryland a two-goal cushion, also scoring from close range in the 15th minute, before American's Heidi Hershberger cut the advantage in half at 21:42.

The 2-1 score held up until halftime. After the break, however, the Terps tallied three more goals and kept the Eagles out of their offensive end for most of the half to pull away.

Pappas' career-high second goal of the game put Maryland in front, 3-1, at 45:17, with classmate Nicole Muracco following close behind, just over a minute later.

Sophomore Ellen Ott made a perfect pass to sophomore Susie Rowe, who was waiting at the top of the circle and slammed it into the cage.

Maryland allowed just four shots in each half to American, while the Terrapins had 12 in the second period alone and 20 for the game. The Terps also dominated in the penalty corners category, 8-2. Both of AU's corners were in the first half.

In the net, Allison Fayfich's seven saves were matched by Maryland's seven, registered by junior All-American Kathryn Masson and redshirt-freshman Alicia Grater.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The top-ranked Terrapin s held off No. 7 North Carolina in an exciting 1-0 victory. The win guarantees the Terps at least a share of the regular season Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Maryland sophomore Susie Rowe scored the game's only goal less than 10 minutes into the second half. Junior goalie Kathryn Masson registered three saves in preserving the team's eighth shutout victory of the season.

The second half was full of scoring opportunities for the Terps (17-1, 4-1 ACC), as they fired 16 shots during the period. The team totaled 22 shots for the game, including seven by Paula Terps congratulate Kristina Foster after scoring her first-career goal.

Infante, who put pressure on North Carolina goalie Brianna O'Donnell throughout the game.

Masson faced several Tar Heel (11-5, 1-4 ACC) attacks herself, including a frenetic sequence with less than five minutes to go in the second half in which she registered two straight saves. The Tar Heels registered nine shots on the game.

The win puts the Terps at the 17-win mark, a milestone they have achieved in each of the past eight seasons.

Maryland put the heat on O'Donnell early in the second half when they earned five penalty corners in quick succession, culminating with Rowe's goal after several good opportunities. Junior Janneke van Leeuwen picked up her 25th point of the season when she assisted on Rowe's goal.

APPALACHIAN MOUNTAINEERS 0 GAME 19 Oct. 27, 2006 Appalachian St. 5 #1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Susie Rowe's two goals in the team's final regular-season game, led No. 1 Maryland to a 5-0 victory over Appalachian State and it's winningest regular season since 1999.

Having already wrapped up the ACC season, earning at least a share of the conference regular-season crown, the Terrapins (18-1) focused their attentions to their six seniors who were honored before the start of the game against the Mountaineers (1-16).

Seniors Kristina Edmonds, Megan Fox, Paula Infante, Christina Restivo, Berber Rischen and Emily Trycinski were playing in the final regular-season contest of their careers. With the win, the senior class has amassed an impressive 78-13 record, including three-straight trips to the national semifinals, an ACC tournament title, a conference regular-season title and an NCAA Championship.

Against the Mountaineers on Friday night at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, Maryland took care of business early. The Terps were up 2-0 within the first five minutes of the game. Infante tallied the game-winner on a penalty corner just over a minute into the contest. Fellow senior Trycinski get on the scoreboard for the team's second goal of the evening.

Another senior, Berber Rischen, rounded out the scoring in the first half to put Maryland in front, 3-0.

Before the game was over, Rowe put th visiting Mountaineers away for good, scoring twice in the period.

The shut out is also Maryland's ninth of the season, while the 18-1 regular-season mark is tied for the best since 1999, the year the Terrapins won the NCAA and ACC titles.

CHAPEL HILL,L N.C. - No. 1 and top-seeded Maryland will head to the championship title game of the ACC Tournament for the third-straight year and 19th all-time. The Terrapins got stellar performances from ACC Defensive Player of the Year Paula Infante and all-conference pick Susie Rowe, as the duo notched two goals apiece to lead the Terps to a 5-2 victory against No. 5 seed Virginia.

The Terrapins improve to 19-1 on the year, as they advance to the league's championship title game.

Maryland went on the attack early, as Infante took the first shot for the Terrapins. Cavalier netminder Katherine Blair came up with a save before another shot attempt by Maryland's Rowe was blocked by a UVa defender. But then the teams took turns battling on each side of the field, until the Terrapins finally broke through the Cavs' defense. Freshman midfielder Bri Davies fed a pass to senior Emily Trycinski, who was standing in front of the net, for the tip-in and a 1-0 lead.

The Cavaliers had chances to tie the game in the last two minutes of the first half. UVa was awarded a pair of penalty corners but weren't able to convert, as the shots sailed high over the net.

Infante put Maryland up 2-0 after a penalty corner with 28:28 on the clock after the break. Junior Janneke van Leeuwen picked up her 13th assist of the season, while senior Kristina Edmonds picked up her fourth assist.

UVa would counter minutes later, as freshman midfielder Fenna Breitbarth scored on an unassisted goal at the 45th minute to cut the lead 2-1.

Infante came through for the Terps again, as she side stepped past a group of Cavaliers and knocked in a shot past Blair to give Maryland a 3-1 advantage.

With less than 14 minutes left in regulation, Rowe took a pass from Infante and netted her first goal in the game. Not less than a minute passed before Rowe backhanded her second goal of the game into the lower left corner of the net for a significant 5-1 lead.

The Cavaliers fought to the very end, including a goal on a penalty corner by Mia Link as the clock expired. It would too late for UVa as it fell to the Terps by a final score of 5-2.

vs. Wake Forest
ACC Tournament

#7 WF 1 — 0 #1

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Wake Forest's goal with just 11 second remaining in the first half was enough for the Demon Deacons to top top-ranked and top-seeded Maryland, 1-0, in the championship game of the ACC Tournament. Defenders Paula Infante and Susie Rowe were both named to the All-Tournament team.

Senior Paula Infante is only the third player in school history to be named ACC All-Tournament four times and the first since Caroline Walter who was named to the all-star squad from 1998-01. Sophomore Susie Rowe's selection was the second of her career. She was last year's tournament most valuable player.

With the top two teams in the nation squaring off for the conference title for the second-straight year, the title tilt was as exciting as anticipated. Both teams came into the game as the co-regular season champions, with Maryland earning the top seed after it defeated WFU, 3-2, in late September.

In the first half, much of the battle going on was in the midfield, as neither team gave up many scoring opportunities. Wake Forest had just four shots in the first period, while the Terps, who sport one of the top offenses in the nation, had none.

Maryland drew the first penalty corner of the game with less than 24 minutes remaining in the half, but the shot was too high and waved off.

With under 20 minutes to play, Wake Forest got its first opportunity on the offensive end. After junior All-ACC goalkeeper Kathryn Masson made a save on a baseline shot by WF's Tracey Scott, the Demon Deacons were awarded the first of only three penalty corners for the game. Wake could not make the stop on the push out, however, and the rushed shot went wide.

With less than four minutes remaining in the half, Maryland was in the shooting circle but could not get a shot off. On the counter, the Deacons sprinted down field but ACC Defensive Player of the Year Infante made the stop, allowing the rest of the defense to catch up.

Still able to keep the ball in the Terps' defensive end despite the big defensive play, Wake Forest got another penalty corner with just 2:20 remaining in the half. The direct shot by Lauren Crandall, a member of the U.S. National Team, was stopped by Masson to keep the game scoreless.

But with time winding down in the half, Wake Forest's Michelle Kasold ran down the right side of the field and took a running shot which sailed high and into side of the cage for the only goal of the game.

The second half was a different story as Maryland came out with renewed energy. Maryland outshot WFU, 5-2 in the period, one shot less than Wake Forest attempted the entire game. The Terps also had five penalty corners in the final 35 minutes, three of which came in the final minutes. However, Wake's goal would stand up and the conference champion was crowned.

NCAA Tournament

#17 0 — 4 #2

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-ranked Maryland field hockey advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the 12th-straight year after defeating 17th-ranked Richmond, 4-0.

The game was scoreless for most of the first half as Richmond (17-5) reeled off three of its four shots for the game in the opening five minutes of the game. On one of those shots, the Spiders nearly took a 1-0 lead, but Maryland All-ACC performer Kristina Edmonds came up with the defensive save to keep the game at 0-0.

Before the end of the half, however, the Terps (20-2) took a 1-0 edge. Freshman Ameliet Rischen (Rotterdam, Netherlands) fired off a shot from the top of the circle to give them the 1-0 lead with less than two minutes left in the first half.

In the second stanza, the Terps added a pair of early goals from junior Janneke van Leeuwen and freshman Alexis Pappas to pad the lead and take a 3-0 cushion.

Senior Susie Rowe capped the afternoon with her 12th goal of the season at 66:07.

For the first time in school history, Maryland has posted back-to-back 20-win seasons and the sixth in the history of the program.

NCAA Tournament

#6 PSU 0 — 1 #2

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - No. 2 Maryland is advancing to its fourth-consecutive national semifinal thanks to a 1-0 victory over theNo. 6 Penn State Nittany Lions. With just under 15 minutes to play on the rain-soaked turf of the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, senior All-ACC performer Paula Infante fired a rocket from the top of the circle that deflected off a defender's stick and into the back of the goal.

The shot came after the Terps (21-2) earned one of their 3 penalty corners of the game. Junior Janneke van Leeuwen passed the ball to the top, where sophomore Susie Rowe set Infante up for the winning shot.

The defending national champions held the Nittany Lions (16-6) to just 4 shots as junior All-American Kathryn Masson recorded 3 saves in her second shutout of the weekend.

"Having gotten to the Final Four three years in a row with our senior class can bring a tremendous amount of pressure and I thought they handled it well," said head coach Missy Meharg after the game.

Goalkeeper Kathryn Masson made three saves in the game, posting her eighth shutout of the season.

penalty strokes

#7 UCONN 1 — 2 #2

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - It took 100 minutes and a shootout for Maryland to advance to the NCAA Championship game after defeating Connecticut, 2-1, in penalty strokes in the semifinals. Redshirt senior Christina Restivo came off the bench to face the penalty strokes, making two saves to claim the win.

It is the first time since 1994 a NCAA semifinal game has been decided in penalty strokes.

The only non-ACC team among the final four, Big East champion UConn (21-4) was looking for the upset bid and was undeterred by the unfamiliar territory. The Terps, Wake and Duke, who lost the WFU in the earlier semifinal, 5-4, in double overtime, were making their fourth-straight appearances in the semifinals.

The Huskies struck early. A penalty corner from Jennifer Kleinhans within the first four minutes of the game put UConn in front, 1-0. It was the first goal the Terps had allowed in the NCAA Tournament.

It was a back-and-forth battle the rest of the way in the first period, as Maryland battled to try and even the match. Finally, with just over three minutes left in the period, freshman Ameliet Rischen fired off a shot from the top right of the circle to tie things up at 1-1.

The teams remained deadlocked, despite Maryland's domination in the second half. The Terps attempted 17 shots over the final 65 minutes of the game, allowing just four UConn shots during that span, attempting just one in the final 35 minutes of regulation and through the first overtime.

Goalkeeper Andrea Mainiero, however, would not let up, making 13 stops in the game and forcing a penalty stroke.

In the stoke-off, both teams changed goalkeepers. Christina Restivo has been the team's stroke specialist throughout her four-year career in College Park. UConn was up first, making its first two attempts. Maryland matched the effort. But Restivo made stops on the Huskies' third and fourth strokes, while sophomore Ellen Ott and senior Berber Rischen each made theirs to seal the victory and come away with the final, 2-1, result.

Maryland advances to the championship game for the second-straight year. The Terps won last year's NCAA crown with a 1-0 victory over Duke. With the WFU-Duke overtime match, it is the first time in NCAA history both semifinals matches had been decided in extra periods.

#2 1 GAME 25 Nov. 19, 2006 at Wake Forest NCAA Tournament 0 #1

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Maryland captured its fifth national championship, winning back-to-back titles for the first time in school history. Senior Emily Trycinski scored the game's only goal at 30:08 to defeat top-ranked Wake Forest, 1-0, on their home field at Kentner Stadium.

"I am so proud of this team. We stayed away from the concept of defending a national championship all season," said Maryland head coach Missy Meharg. "We established a way of working and we were fortunate to be here and get a win. Wake Forest did a great job of keeping us out of the circle.

"The greatest thing about [Maryland] is they are hardworking and they stuck to the game plan today. We felt confident with the 1-0 lead because of the way we were playing. We pulled Paula [Infante] back which takes away from our offense, but our defense was outstanding."

The Terps' goal was set up by Infante making a long pass into the circle on a restart. Freshman Ameliet Rischen's, who tallied the game-tying goal in the semifinal win over Connecticut, shot was saved, creating a scramble off a save by Wake Forest goalkeeper Crystal Duffield. With Duffield unable to recover and still on the ground, Emily Trycinski gathered the ball and pushed it past the goal line.

The Terrapin defense was impenetrable this afternoon. The Deacons came into the weekend with the top-ranked offense in the nation. The Maryland backfield did not allow WFU to attempt a shot in the first half. Wake's first attempt was with just over 28 minutes remaining in the game and junior goalkeeper Kathryn Masson made the save to preserve the one-goal lead.

The Terrapins dodged a bullet with just 19 minutes left in the game. Masson came out of the net to a ball. WFU's Christine Suggs intercepted the clear inside the circle and had a wide open net, but her shot went inches wide as the scored remained, 1-0, in Maryland's favor.

"It feels awesome to finish [my career] this way," said Infante. "There are no regrets and we gave it our all. It's awesome to go out on a high note."

Maryland outshot Wake Forest, 7-4, the second-lowest shot attempts for the Terps this season. The combined 11 shots by both teams is the lowest number of shot attempts in a championship game. Both teams only had two penalty corners apiece, as well.

Five Terrapins were named to the all-tournament team. Infante becomes the first player in school history to earn NCAA All-Tournament honors four times. Joining her were senior Christina Restivo, who made two saves in the shootout of the semifinal game, sophomore Susie Rowe, junior Janneke van Leeuwen and Trycinski. Wake Forest's Kristi Harshman, Jamie Whitten, Lauren Crandall and Michelle Kasold, UConn's Lizzy Peijs and Duke's Laura Suchoski.

Emily Trycinski celebrates scoring the only goal in the NCAA Championship game vs. Wake Forest.

It was the third meeting between the teams. The Terps won the regular-season matchup, 3-2, at Kentner Stadium. The Deacons win the ACC Championship with a 1-0 win over Maryland in Chapel Hill, N.C. Wake Forest's only two losses of the season were to Maryland.

Maryland also won the NCAA title in 1987, 1993, 1999 and 2005, with 19th-year head coach Meharg leading the team to four of those championships. The Terps end the season with 23-2 record, the sixth 20-win season in the history of the program and the first in back-to-back seasons. The shutout is the Terps' 12th of the season, tying a school record set in 1991.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 92 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes three Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

In 2004, Maryland's School of Music hosted the National Symphony Orchestra in its first university residency, and its 2006 opera production was declared by the Washington Post music critic "... as good as any Bohème you are likely to see this side of the Metropolitan Opera or Covent Garden."

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
NINTH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 14TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 14th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 13-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 15 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and he staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goa oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 70 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budgets (none c the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival The budget has now reached $55 million annually and th multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which he administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provide for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for studen athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the uppe 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts or behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during he tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities fo the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

IN DECEMBER OF 2004, DEBORAH A. YOW WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS BY STREET & SMITH'S SPORTS BUSINESS JOURNAL.

Yow congratulates one of the members of the Maryland Competitive Cheer team that won the 2006 NCA Division I National Championship.

- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable six national championships during the past two seasons (2005-06, 2006-07).
- In 2006, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the most well-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 14 tournaments.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In 2006, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps beat Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Graduation rates in football are near 80 percent and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only nine universities to win the National Championship in football and men's basketball and is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the only other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of the past five seasons.
- Field Hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.

Dr. Yow with Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Men's Soccer has appeared in four consecutive Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in the 2005-06 season.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the $130 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events – part of a remarkable $250 million upgrade and expansion of athletics facilities during Dr. Yow's leadership of Maryland Athletics.
- In 2006-07, 13 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 13 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Don Pearman works with the Maryland field hockey team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

HOME OF THE TERRAPINS

BALTIMORE

So much, so close... It's all here beyond the University of Maryland campus. City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes, jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations, shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.... Home of the Terrapins!
